

THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.

HOPKINSVILLE, JULY 22, 1879.

Mr. Henry is a man of high intelligence and business capacity. A vote for him will be no means be wasted.

Mr. Henry will carry a good colored vote. Mark well that fact, ye black barbers and radical rascals.

Mr. Feland is an excellent groomer of a sweet-scented barbershop. He knows how to work his colored brothers and sisters up to fever heat—politically.

The very saddest thing in connection with the death of the Prince Imperial is that the Zulus captured old Ntsoelike's sword. Truly the scepter seems to have passed from Zulu.

These few Democrats who promised Mr. Feland, the Greenbacker, to vote for him, will, of course, not do so, as he has changed his politics since the promise was made. He now wants to blot the Democratic party from the face of the earth, so he says.

Mr. Feland is in favor of keeping the soldiers at the polls. The Democrats of this county have seen none of this military devilry in their polls, and so do not know what a curse it is to honest people. Let them go South and learn a lesson, since they here will be benefited.

It has reached the ears of the editor of this paper that Dr. Fugate has denied having denounced the Democratic party in his speech at Hainbridge. This is most probably a slander of the Doctor. The evidence of a hundred men is too strong for him to buck against, and we feel assured he has not denied the charge.

Dr. Fugate has changed his principles wonderfully, awfully since his commencement at this college. He started out mild enough, but he now asserts that if there be one thing of which he is politically ashamed, that thing is that he has heretofore affiliated and voted with the Democratic party. He regrets his vote for Tilden and Hendricks.

Jersey Justice is said to be sure. There are two culprits to be hung there on the 25th. Their cases have passed through the following courts: Magistrate's, County, Circuit, Criminal, Appeals, Supreme, Error, and they still hope to cheat law and justice from a court of Pardons, composed of the Governor and eight Judges. After so much courtship, what more could be expected than that a knot should be tied?

If Mr. Grant is elected President in 1880 by Mr. Feland's influence, of course he will give him a big fat office in his Imperial Government. Who knows but what he may be a marshal to say whether the farmers of this county shall give one-fourth or one-third of all their crops to support the military Government? He will vote for Grant, if nominated, and of course Mr. Grant will do the right thing by him, although at the expense of an oppressed people.

The Republicans produce dispatches from prominent Democrats in Oregon, Louisiana and Florida to the effect that the Supervisors of the election had offered to sell them the State. The Democrats produce similar dispatches from prominent Republicans. It is evident from these facts that these Supervisors are unprincipled thieves. Now, which one of the two parties wants them retained? It is a crying shame on the Republican party that it urges their retention. They acknowledge that the Supervisors are villains and yet boldly assert that through them alone can fair elections be held.

The fact is that some particular disease prevails in every section each summer season. One year yellow fever prevails, next cholera. This season, in this State cholera morbus seems most fashionable. Our exchanges are recording numerous cases, some of them fatal, in all parts of the State. Precaution may probably guard our readers against it. Proper diet is the most safe preventative. To illustrate with an actual occurrence will not be out of place:

A poor consumptive called to his bedside, for consultation, a minister. This good apostle was condescending with the patient over his inevitable demise at an early hour and begged him to resign, that shuffling off the mortal coil he would only be transformed to a soldier of that legion which, with harps of a thousand strings, floating smoothly, sweetly through the zephyr vaults of the ethereal realms above, made melodious music from the clouds. The feeble consumptive could stand it no longer, and raising himself up in superhuman effort, cried "stop! stop! I am here! I am here! I am here!"

So often there are in this section damp clouds and picking jowls-harps, it will be well for all such to fall in love with court and wed the cucumber, the watermelon and the collard. Especially instrumental will each of these specialties prove in warding them off the performance of a harp tuned, cloud chorus.

THE STATE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

also, why do we not hear from Hewitt, Pickett, Sheldon and Tate?

This is a very sickly year on public courtesy. Mr. Boyd Winchester, of Louisville, did not fill his engagement to speak here last night and Mr. A. K. Clark is laying up this week. His appointments for the week will not be filled.

Mr. Feland thinks that civil authority should be subordinate to the military. Will any right-thinking citizen vote for him, to set aside trial by jury and constitutional rights, guaranteed to the States.

The actual Greenback party in the county is about five hundred strong. Four hundred of these are drawn from the Republican party while one hundred are from the Democratic party. The Republicans have lost three hundred voters by the Greenback move.

Mr. Feland bent Mr. McKenzie for the Legislature by only 62 votes. He beat Mr. Dulin by only 164 votes. Since his party has lost three hundred clear votes by the Greenback move why cannot the Democrats elect Mr. Henry? Let every Democrat cease quibbling, and "let every innup be trimmed and burning" that we may elect Mr. Henry by a respectable majority.

Let every Democrat do his duty. Do not rend such sentiments and forget their bearing. In the name of honesty, in the name of your country, in the name of democracy, fight a good fight. Be true to your party. Let not a man be wanting at the polls to throw off this Radical yoke. Christian county should be Democratic, the star of her destiny now sparkles brightly with hope. Never have we had brighter prospects of success. The Republican party is justly indignant at Mr. Feland for accepting a nomination by trickery and wirepulling. He is not the choice of his party and will not poll his party strength.

For the Legislature.

Below will be found a call on Mr. Winston Henry to become a Democratic candidate for the Legislature.

The call was presented to him and he, as will be seen from his card, concurred to the wishes of his party. He is a man of sterling qualities. His reputation as a man of thorough business qualification, as a gentleman of strictest integrity, and as a Democrat of the truest type reflects credit on himself, while it is an honor to Democracy to have him as a standard bearer. He will doubtless poll the full strength of his party and receive in addition a flattering vote from members of other parties in the county. It is within the reach of the Democracy to elect him and by each of us putting our shoulders to the wheel the work will be assured. Let us rise in our might and throw off the political yoke that has heretofore borne heavily on the best interests of our county! The following is the call.

Winston Henry, Esq., Casey Station, Ky.

Wo, the undersigned, recognizing you as a suitable man to represent this county in the lower house of the next Legislature, and believing that the best interests of the Democratic party would be subserved thereby, do ask that you permit your name to go before the people at the next August election. Respectfully,

Mr. Henry's Reply.

CASEY STATION, July 21st, 1879.

James G. Braham, M. D. Davis, E. W. Walker, Wm T. Townes, W. T. Hainberry, and others: GENTLEMEN—In response to your call of the 18th inst., upon me to be a candidate to represent Christian county in the lower house of the next General Assembly of Kentucky, I would reply that I feel highly complimented by your opinion of my ability to represent the best interests of the people of this, my native county, and in compliance with your complimentary call, I announce myself a candidate for that position, and submit my claims to the voters of this county.

In the event of my election, I pledge myself to serve the people of Christian county to the best of my ability at all times, carefully watching their interest, and guarding their rights with a zealous eye. I will always be found at my post faithfully discharging the duties of the office, and endeavor to so conduct myself that those who support me may never regret their choice nor feel otherwise than gratified at my conduct as their representative. Again, thanking you for your flattering call, I remain as ever, Your obedient servant, WINSTON HENRY.

Mr. John Feland accords to the National Government, supreme authority. He favors a "strong" Government. He desires the States their rights and such a denial is the restriction of the people's rights. He will vote for Grant, if nominated by the black Republicans, in 1880. Will any right-thinking Democrat vote for him in preference to a true Democrat? Those who do, only cut their own throats.

Mr. Feland is in favor of Supervisors of elections. We are not bothered by them here, but remember their villainy of 1876. A quarter of a million of citizens of a State, after expressing themselves at the polls, are laughed at and a contemptible little Supervisor, with about as much honesty and sense as a tobacco worm, changes the result and declares whomsoever he chooses to be elected. The decision of the people can be set aside, but the Supervisor is infallible.

CHAPTER 42.

An act to Take the Sense of the People of This State as to the Propriety of Calling a Convention to Revise the Constitution.

WHEREAS, It is represented to the General Assembly that many of the good citizens of this Commonwealth do verily believe that experience has pointed out the necessity of calling a convention with the view of amending the Constitution of this State; therefore:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That it shall be the duty of the sheriffs and other returning officers, at the next general election to be held for Representative after passage of this act, to open a poll for and make a return to the Secretary of State for the time being, of the names of all citizens entitled to vote for calling a convention.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That any sheriff or other returning officer, failing to perform the duty according to the provisions of the first section of this act, shall be subject to a fine of six hundred dollars, to be recovered by indictment by any grand jury in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and also be subject, upon conviction of such failure, to removal from office.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to have advertised in the columns of one weekly newspaper in every county of this State, for two consecutive weeks immediately preceding the election hereof, and in one of the daily newspapers in the city of Louisville for thirty days immediately preceding the election: Provided, however, That if a weekly newspaper in any one or more counties is not published, nonwealth in which said advertisement can be made, it is made his duty to have posted a printed copy of said bill, in handbill form, at the courthouse door of each county, for at least two consecutive weeks preceding said election.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That the Public Printer shall, upon a separate leaf or sheet, print ten thousand copies of this act, and deliver them to the Secretary of the State, who shall send seventy-five copies of the same to the clerk of the county court of each county in the State at the time of forwarding the Act of the General Assembly; and said clerk shall deliver the same to the sheriffs of their several counties.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerks or judges conducting the said general election to propound distinctly to each voter the following interrogatory: "Do you vote for calling a convention or not?" and if he answers in the affirmative, his name shall be recorded as having voted for calling a convention; and if he answers in the negative, his name shall be recorded as having voted against calling a convention.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the assessors of tax to open a column in their assessors' books, and enroll therein the name of each citizen entitled to vote for Representative for the year 1879; and the assessor of each county, in ascertaining who is entitled to vote, by the laws then in force to prevent illegal voting; and this column, written in a fair and legible hand, shall be transmitted, with the assessors' books, to the Auditor, who shall make an office of the Secretary of State the time being, and shall transmit the same to the next Legislature as a list of those who are entitled to vote for Representative, in order that the Legislature may have the means to ascertain whether a majority of the citizens of the State are entitled to vote for Representative, having voted for a Convention.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each assessor of tax, who shall be in office in the year 1879, as soon as he shall be notified of his duty, to go to the polls before sunrise of the peace and take the following oath: "I do solemnly swear I will, to the best of my skill and judgment, fairly ascertain the number of qualified voters in the district in which I was elected, for the year 1879, and report the same, with my name made as assessor of tax, before the first day of May, 1879."

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, That the assessors of tax may, and they are hereby required to, examine, on oath, any person in relation to his right to vote for Representatives, when he has the right to vote, and to report the same, with his name made as assessor of tax, before the first day of May, 1879, and any person who shall knowingly swear falsely before the assessor, and shall thereof be convicted, shall be subject to all the pains and penalties of the crime of perjury.

Sec. 9. Be it further enacted, That the assessor of each county, who shall be in office in the year 1879, shall be required to transmit the name of each person who shall be entitled to vote for Representative, to the Public Printer, to print five hundred copies of the seventh, eighth, and ninth sections of this act, and deliver them to the Secretary of State for the time being, who shall transmit them forthwith to the county clerks, to be delivered by them, as soon as possible, to the assessors of tax for the year 1879.

Approved January 19 1878.

Personal Agreement.

The undersigned, being candidates for Circuit Judge, at the election to be held in August, 1880, and being desirous of settling our claims as to the rights of each to be elected at all the precincts at the coming August election, and that all persons may vote except those who vote for the Republican candidate for Governor.

It is further distinctly understood that this settlement is only made between ourselves, involving the field to any other applicant who may choose to contest the county with the successful candidate.

And it is further agreed that we will not contest the county or go out of town for the purpose of obtaining, or attending any public meetings or barbecues in the county, except by agreement of all of us. It being hereby intended that the people shall decide their choice calmly and deliberately, the one receiving the highest vote to be the candidate, and the other two to withdraw their names.

The vote at each precinct to be taken down by three persons, one to be selected by each of us, or by his friends; the poll books to be returned by them to the clerk of the county, and Sam. M. Gaines, and by them to be counted and the result declared, and their action to be final.

THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.

C. M. McKEACH, Local Editor.
HOPKINSVILLE, JULY 22, 1879.

SOCIALITIES.

Mrs. T. and Miss Mills left for Cerulean Thursday.

Miss Belle Baker, of Cadiz, is visiting the family of Mr. Orr.

Mr. J. M. Hester, of Louisville, was the guest of the Phoenix Saturday.

Col. James O. Cooper has gone to Cerulean to match yarns with Jo. Griffin.

Miss Jennie Gary, of this county, is continuing for some weeks at Sebree Springs.

Mr. Jas. M. Howe and wife went down last week to spend some days in Cerulean.

Miss Susie Edmunds departed last Tuesday for Paducah, to visit her cousin, Miss Mary Barnett.

Mr. Fort, a young gentleman from Robertson county, Tenn., is visiting his friend Mill Tice.

Miss Emma Glass departed last week for that delectable summer resort, Cerulean Springs.

Miss May Palmer, of Springfield, Tenn., was the guest of Mrs. J. W. Lander, last week.

Miss Willia Faulkner who has been visiting friends in Paducah for some weeks, has returned home.

Mr. B. O. Welch and his daughter Miss Luggie, left for Sebree Springs last Friday, to remain several days.

Marshall P. M. Owen, who has been quite sick recently, has resumed his duties, though looking rather emaciated.

Mr. Jos. S. Colman and wife will celebrate their silver wedding next Thursday night 24th inst., by receiving a select company of their friends.

Our clever young friend Clarence Gold, of Clarksville, spent several days in the city last week. We won't tell on you this time, Clarence, don't be alarmed.

Messrs W. B. Dorich and M. C. McMurray, of Nashville, and C. C. Bell, of Springfield, Tenn., were among the prominent buyers on the tobacco board last week.

Messrs Marshall Foulkes and Larkie Lindsay, of Nashville, left last week for Louisville, Col. They entertain high hopes of speedily accumulating a colossal fortune.

Hon. A. H. Clark returned to the city Wednesday, during a short absence from his political canvass. His party papers speak in very complimentary terms of his speech at Dixon.

Among the charming young ladies visiting the city, are Misses Kata and Ione Newman, of Rome, Ga., who are the guests of Mrs. S. G. Tucker. They used many friends and admirers during their visit here last summer, and Hopkinsville society gladly welcomes their return.

Miss Ada Trice, of Hopkinsville, is visiting Miss Jessie Carr.—(Princeton Banner.)

Miss Ada returned home last week much to the delight of her many friends. She has been absent several weeks, part of the time visiting Miss Lena Bollinger, of Mayfield.

We regret to announce that Capt. Gaines will be barred the pleasure of participating in the giddy dance for some time. He severely sprained his ankle recently at Cerulean by an accidental fall, and is hardly able to walk with a stick. He mentioned in a recent issue of his paper a young man who went to the hall on the 4th, and slept till time to return. Probably the water down there possesses soporific properties, and the Capt. was taking a comfortable stroll, while under the influence of it when he fell.

IMPROVEMENTS.

A new house is being erected by Mr. Nansen, on the corner of Clay and South streets.

Mr. Wm. Cowan is making preparations to erect a house on the vacant lot adjoining Mr. Hord's, on South Main street.

The Presbyterian church has recently had some very material repairs made upon it, in having the doors painted, etc.

Many other houses have been repaired and otherwise improved in the southern part of the city, greatly adding to their appearance.

The houses occupied by Messrs E. L. Foulke, P. M. Owen, and R. B. Rutherford have just been greatly improved in appearance by a fresh coat of paint.

Mr. Frank Waller is having his house on Maple street recovered and repaired generally. A carpenter's rule was found under the old roof which had been there forty years, and was still as good as new.

We have recently been over the grounds of the new cemetery, being laid off by Mr. Benj. Grove, a skillful engineer of Louisville. They present a most symmetrical and beautiful appearance, and it is to be hoped that the whole will be finished by the map Mr. Grove will leave, and be planted in trees, so that they can be coming on. We think the council intend laying off only part of it now, but they should realize the importance of doing it all at once. The hands are sufficiently experienced now to proceed under the direction of Mr. A. V. Townes, who is superintending it without the supervision of Mr. Grove, and the work should be finished by all means.

HERE AND THERE.

Next Monday is quarterly court. Didn't we have some weather, though, last week?

Guests are flocking to Cerulean from every direction.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the Christian church.

Less than two weeks till the election. Rally! Democrats, rally!

"Doctor" McKenzie at the Court-house next Monday. Audite.

The St. L. & S. E. Railroad went into the hands of the L. & N. Road last Saturday.

Mr. Otto G. Lander has quit the printing business, and is now engaged as traveling agent for this paper.

The Chalybeate water from Sebree is recommended for children—try it. Received daily and sold by S. H. Turner.

The financial question is the all important one of the day. It is receiving the attention even of fair sex. One charming Miss on Maple street has decided herself in favor of Gold.

Another mad dog was killed in the southern part of the city Sunday evening. The first intimation of its disease was an attempt to bite some children. This matter should receive the attention of the proper authorities, and the dog laws be enforced.

Hon. James A. McKenzie, "Christian's favorite son," will address the citizens of this county at the Court-house next Monday. Every man in the county should be proud to have such an able Representative in Congress, and should turn out to hear him to a man, irrespective of opposing political predilections.

Mr. Jas. L. Wahl, lately of Paducah, will open a mammoth Jewelry establishment in the Queenware store of Mr. E. Rehner, on Main St., about the first of August. Mr. Wahl was born at Elkton, and his father was a professor of music in this city from '52 to '58, and is well remembered by many of our citizens. He has established an enviable reputation as a jeweler in Paducah and is with a clever young gentleman and straight forward business man. He will keep a full stock of the best jewelry always on hand and will execute work in the most satisfactory manner. We are always glad to welcome enterprising business men to our town, and consequently we will be glad to receive Mr. Wahl as such, and bespeak for him a liberal share of patronage.

POLICE NEWS.

A PLUCKY YOUNG LADY.
One night last week some one entered the house of Mr. T. C. Hanberry, near Pea Dee, while Mr. Hanberry was at home. The family were sleeping in a room above, and were aroused by hearing the burglar turn over a chair. His daughter, Miss Cordie, seized a pistol, ran to the upper window and fired at the villain as he escaped from the room below, but unfortunately missed him. No doubt his motive was robbery. He was seen as he ran off but could not be recognized in the darkness.

THE PEACEFUL TRAVELLER.
The peaceful tranquillity which has reigned in the city for some days was disturbed Wednesday night by one of the most exciting melees that has occurred for months. The scene of the conflict was a boarding house on Nashville street, and the engagement took place around the festal board. Like the avalanche, it began in a manner hardly perceptible, but gradually increased in power until, with a terrible crash, it swept everything before it. A difference of opinion, it seems, existed between two men, named Meade and Bowman, and word brought on word till they began to emphasize their statements in a pugilistic manner. The proprietor of the house, with the assistance of one of the guests attempted to quell the riot, when the combatants turned upon them, and soon the fight was raging with an awful fury. Plates, cups, saucers, knives, forks, and dishes were hurled through the air in every direction. Bowman was struck with a glass of milk, and the red and white were mingled. Meade was likewise hit with a sugar bowl, and his hair and clothes were begrimed with blood and sugar, which trickled down into his collar and ears, but all they fought. Dishes of gravy, butter, preserves and the like continued to fly. Disembodied legs and limbs (of fowl), were strewn around the room promiscuously, and the table looked as if some bosom of destruction had swept over it, crushing everything in its course. We know not how peace was secured, but when the smoke of battle cleared away, every man engaged in it was found to be wounded, none of them, however, seriously.

Notice of Absence.
I shall leave to-morrow, with my family, to visit my old home in North Carolina, and shall probably be absent four or five weeks. I have to gratefully thank my patrons for past favors and beg an excuse for my present absence. Due notice will be given of my return. Very Respectfully,
R. D. Fleming.

The Early Bird, manufactured at Lynchburg, Va., by Mr. Carrol is now superseding all other brands of smoking tobacco, is sold at same prices as Durham's and is three grades better. When it is remembered that Mr. Carrol holds the medals for manufacturing the best for smoking in the world, you will be eager to try Early Bird the best in the market. Address CARROL'S EARLY BIRD TOBACCO WORKS, Lynchburg, Va.

The Providence Amateurs.

The Amateur Dramatic Company appeared at Mozart Hall last Tuesday night, and presented the two dramas "Little Treasure," and "Id' be Parlo Francals." We know it is the custom with most newspapers to ignore the faults and laud the virtues of such entertainments, but believing that an honest opinion should always be expressed, we will, while commending the better parts, endeavor to delicately point out the defective ones. The first piece was "Little Treasure," and "Gertrude," the heroine, was personated by Miss Bettie Howell, in a manner that reflected great credit upon her, and showed that she possessed real dramatic talent. Miss Lyle's personation of "Grandma" was also rendered in an acceptable manner, though as the character was an unimportant one, her opportunities for displaying her powers as an actress were not good. Miss Ford's acting was characterized by less animation and vivacity, though her words were distinctly and audibly uttered. The hero, was personated by Mr. Rufus Rhodes, and his rendition of the part evinced the fact that he was peculiarly adapted to the personation of the character, which was that of a bashful lover. Mr. Smith did not throw enough vim into his part, but upon the whole did well. Mr. Martin acted well but did not have perfect control of his voice. He must be accustomed to public speaking, as during his words were uttered in a declamatory tone.

The second piece was decidedly humorous, but for lack of space we cannot undertake to give a synopsis of it. The characters were represented by Messrs Ford, Craddock, Lyle, and Howell, and Messrs Mettill, Martin and Smith. The acting of all, was equally as good as it was in the first piece, and that of Mr. Mettill was especially commendable. He is certainly excellently adapted to the enacting of humorous parts. What we have said has not been in a spirit of derogation, for we are bound to admit that the company possesses merit of no small pretensions. Our criticisms have been made, placing them upon a level with professionals, and of course the standard is much higher than if merely amateurs. As amateurs they are at the top, but as compared with professionals they have their faults.

Laying aside our remarks which may seem to them a little severe, we will say that their visit gave universal satisfaction to all, and even those who insisted upon comparing them with professionals, had to acknowledge that they had seen many troupes not near so good. We hope the Amateurs will visit us again, and we will cordially welcome them. They cleared about $40, which is to be appropriated to the Sunday Schools of New Providence. The house was not large on account of the excessive, warm weather.

There is but one point of difference between Dr. Prewitt and Mr. Pratt as to the Crofton affair. Mr. Pratt does not deny the secret meeting but says there was no agreement. We would not impugn to him a falsehood for we do not think he would knowingly misrepresent, but his memory has certainly failed him in this instance. Dr. Prewitt says he is responsible for the statement that there was a positive verbal agreement and that they both had observed it upon previous occasions. At the Democratic barbecue at Madisonville on July 20, Dr. Prewitt was loudly and urgently solicited to speak. We were standing near and asked "Dr. why don't you give us a speech?" "Because," said he, "it would be treating Mr. Pratt unfairly." And he refused to speak. At the Republican barbecue here Saturday, Mr. Pratt again violated the agreement and spoke at length. "Look on this picture and then on that."

Deaths.
Died, at his residence, a few miles South of this city, on the 17th inst., Geo. Buckner, in the 61st year of his age.
He was one of the best and most highly respected citizens of the county, and his death falls with crushing weight upon the family and friends.
Died, at his residence at the Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum, at 2 A. M., July 19th, Capt. Thos. Malloy, in the 54th year of his age.
The deceased was a son of Wm. Malloy, and was born in Montgomery county, Tenn. He married a Miss Pollard, of Caldwell county, Ky., who has been dead for some years. He leaves two daughters, one of whom is married, the other a young lady, was the only person present when his father passed away. About 10 o'clock he called to her to come to him, as he was very sick, but he soon got easier and she returned to her room, till a few minutes later hearing him breathing very hard, she ran to him and found him much worse. She then ran for Dr. Stone near by, and when they returned he was unconscious. Dr. Stone immediately returned for Dr. Bodman, and when they arrived he was dead. His disease was apoplexy. He had been Steward at the Asylum for ten years, and was a man revered by all who knew him. He joined the Baptist church some early age. He was a man of worth in his community, possessing those sterling qualities that go to make up the courteous, honorable and affable gentleman. His loss will be deeply felt by all who knew him, and his place will be hard to fill at the Asylum. The afflicted relatives have our heartfelt sympathies.

The Republican Barbecue.

Last Saturday was the day appointed for the grand rally of the Republicans, without regard to age, sex, color, race, or previous condition of servitude. At an early hour the streets were thronged with people, mostly negroes, and the hack-drivers kept up a continual clatter, expatiating upon the good qualities of their respective conveyances.

After dinner we went out to see, and hear, and learn what we could that would be of interest to our readers. Dinner was not quite over, and a large table was arranged under the trees, which was surrounded by a motley crowd. Another table was spread in the Floral Hall, which was well supplied with nicely cooked provisions for invited guests. We learned that Mr. Feland and Mr. Pratt had spoken. By the way, Mr. Pratt, whom we found to be a very social, genial gentleman, informed us that there had been no agreement made between him and Dr. Prewitt as to the speaking. The latter, however, emphatically asserts the contrary, so there must be a mistake on one side or the other. But we will leave that to be settled by the gentlemen themselves, having implicit confidence in our standard bearer. After the crowd had been fed they began to call for more speeches. Mr. Jas. Breathitt was the first called out and came gracefully forward. Jim is an eloquent speaker and made a good speech, but marred it in the conclusion by flouting that old disreputable rag, the "bloody shirt" of his party. He was followed by some colored speakers whom we did not stay to hear. Comparatively a small number of white people were in attendance. The whole thing was a disappointment to the managers. They not only failed to get the speakers invited, but also to secure a large attendance. It will take several like this to defeat the gifted Prewitt.

TRENTON.

Jim Shanklin, who prize tobacco last Friday, had his leg broken and very badly mangled by the beam splitting and falling on him. He was doing well at last accounts.

Miss Florence Edmunds has gone to Louisville to spend her vacation with friends and relatives there, but will return in time to assist Prof. Pointer in his school next fall.

Cross Wood asked us not to "give him away" about that, and I won't.

Tuesday morning seven buggies started out of Trenton, bound for Danbury's cave. As the day was very warm and sultry, we did not get there till about noon. We were detained waiting for the young ladies to get ready most of that time. We spent the morning very pleasantly, and after dinner some of us drove into Clarksville to get some ice-cream and sherbet. One young man was very much discomfited because one of the Clarksville boys took his sweatshirt away from him and went off to Clarksville. He seemed disposed to blame every one who went to his back. Coming home Joe Williams was a chort down and rolled over on his back. Joe, in endeavoring to disengage his horse from the harness, was kicked flat on his back. It was very amusing as it was all over. The party arrived home at an unusually early hour, about eight o'clock.

The young ladies of the Baptist church, assisted by a few special friends, will give an ice-cream supper at the Hall Tuesday night, July 22d. They look for a large delegation from Hopkinsville.

Miss Addie Sims is visiting her pretty little country cousin, Miss Mary Perkins, Talley town, Ky.

Miss Addie Sims is visiting friends at Hampton Station.

Mrs. J. L. Dickinson, Miss Etta Dickinson, and Miss Ella Cabaniss went to Clarksville Wednesday, after an ice-cream freezer, (1) to make ice-cream and sherbet for the supper Tuesday night. CHECK.

BELEVIEW.
We realize and heartily enjoy the delightful political calm we are now having, for it can't last long.

The grain of Bluegrass was badly reaped by the farmers, and did great good to the growing crops. For a few weeks past a drouth seemed imminent.

The Rev. McCall, a recent mover to this place, commenced a school at Black Jack Academy on Monday last with a good attendance, considering the opposition.

All of the roads in the "Green haw" have been blasted and removed, and we understand that arrangements have been made to remove all between this point and the western end of old Bellevue, much to the pleasure of many.

Squire Donally presented to Dr. Callum last week, two Irish Parrots, which are attracting a good deal of attention. The couple were purchased in Cork, Ireland, one month ago, paying $30 for the pair.

Mrs. J. L. Smithson and grandson left for Dinwiddie county, Virginia, last week, where they will spend a few weeks visiting their old friends and relatives.

Mrs. M. B. Thomas and Miss Bennie, her daughter, are visiting friends in Pembroke.

Misses Linnie Lander, Lucy Stevenson and Annie Cooper, of Hopkinsville, are spending a few days with Mrs. McQuaid.

Dr. Jesse Culom returned from Sebree Springs on Saturday last, much improved in health, but his cough unwell yet. He is now at Cerulean.

About sunset Saturday afternoon, John Tolman and Allan Parrish, two colored men, while returning from a brand-dance at Smoot's bridge, engaged in a difficulty, when Parrish drew revolver and shot Tolman in the thigh, inflicting a very serious if not fatal wound.

SHORTFELLOW.

Births.

Born to the wife of Mr. M. A. Mason, on the 10th inst, a boy.

Born to the wife of Mr. John B. Trico, on the 9th inst, a boy.

TOBACCO NEWS.

Market higher and firm. Good hogs scarce.

Receipts, week ending July 19, 495
" year " " " 818
Sales week " " " 453
" year " " " 6405

Common hogs, $2.50 to $3.00.
Good " 3.00 to 4.00.
Common leaf, 4.50 to 6.00.
Medium " 5.00 to 6.00.
Good " 6.00 to 7.00.
Fine " 7.00 to 9.00.

Sales by Abernathy & Co., of 95 hogs, as follows:
20 hogs, from $3 to $5.30.
46 hogs, low and medium leaf, from $5 to $6.50.
32 hogs, good leaf, from $6.50 to $7.50.

CROFTON.

Notwithstanding the fact that the weather is very dry, heavy loads are now being hauled from the mountains at a cost of only $4.00.

Some gentlemen from South Christian were here purchasing hogs this week. We understand they paid 25 cents for them.

Don't call us gifted Mr. Lecal. We are not gifted, we are a worker; only this and nothing more.

Mr. David Woodbridge, of Springfield, Tenn., sent us a magnificent pointer pen, a few days since, for which we are, as the girls say, ever so much obliged.

Watermelons are beginning to ripen. We have as fine a patch as a crow ever flew over. We have bought a half-pound stychnine, borrowed three bull hogs, hired two tramps to guard it, and the man who crosses that fence must leave hope behind.

We went to Madisonville to hear Breckinridge. He is the finest orator we ever heard. Didn't have any friends there to give us dinner; went down to the hotel and ate everything there but two railroads. It is beyond dispute one of the grandest accomplishments on earth to know how to get invited to dinner.

The candidates for Senator and Representative spoke here Tuesday. We were busy and did not get to hear them. We understand political excitement ran high. This is all foolishness boys, you ought not to get angry. It will do good, argue the question like men, and put in a good humor. Well, after all, it does seem to us like this mill thrust for office certainly is a very disagreeable feeling.

The colored men, urged on by the men who want to sell whiskey or some other thing, are trying to get up a picnic near here.

We are suffering here for rain, the thermometer is in the thirties, the heavens look hot and the sun shines furiously. A half a million bed bugs tramp over us, Weston like, from dark until daylight, and still we are expected to "treat everybody politely."

Butler-Candler gave a ball last week which was a ball. Ben Croft played second fiddle and we tell you it was done right. Ben is not a natural, his talent lies sawlogward. What he knows about music is acquired, nevertheless he is a good player.

We have just learned that Mrs. Altanza Woodbridge, who was on her way to Oregon, died near San Francisco, Cal., a few days ago. She was one of the kindest, purest women we ever knew. She suffered for long years pangs that no mortal can describe; at last they are over, and she sleeps peacefully away out yonder on the golden slope, but God and Heaven are as near her there as here.

The old field school is open and yet tow headed urchin is in his glory. As we go to school our crop and eat down to rest, our housekeeper began to shout "you must fix a turnip patch."

While in Madisonville the other day we were introduced to Mr. Claude Berry, local editor of the Times. He is the handsomest young man in that city.

We bet a horse to lay that Hon. John Feland would be elected.

CERULEAN SPRINGS.

Dusty and dry.
Health exceedingly good for warm weather.

Uncle Harvey Lander says he is doing a better business than any man in town, and has broken up four dry goods houses inside of three years.

We haven't quite as much "human nature" round about Cerulean as our friend Shortfellow reports at Bellevue; the blackberry crops are a entire failure.

Mr. Cresswell visited our realm again last week, seeking whom he might devour. He found no easier prey than that of a little son of Joe Smith, whom he seized and carried away.

Crops are generally good, corn especially. Tobacco is doing well except in plantings, which don't seem to get a start to grow. Wheat is all threshed and the yield was better than most farmers expected. The fruit crop is nearly a total failure.

W. A. Goodwin, a merchant at this place, has lately closed his business, and now walks around with his lips half-cocked, singing the old, old song "Goin' to Jino de county band children, etc." which, of course, means that he is going west. We suppose he is one of Uncle Harvey's victims.

Dr. A. B. Cullum has rented the property formerly occupied by Wm. A. Goodwin.

Last Saturday was the day set apart by Mr. Watkins, tax collector of Trigg, to meet his friends at this place and receive payment of taxes. Mr. Watkins came, but strange to say he enjoyed but few handshakes and spent a very lonesome day.

Mr. Harper is doing a flourishing business during this dry weather. He has quite a number of regular guests, and all seem to be enjoying themselves finely. There is room for plenty more.

STEVE CLIFF.

Greenback Speaking.
Hon. Josh Clark and Dr. W. M. Fuqua will address the people, white and black, at Hopkinsville, Saturday night at 8 o'clock, July 26th, 1879.

Monday, July 28, at Casky, 3 o'clock.
Pembroke, July 29, 3 o'clock.
Barker's Mill, July 30, 3 o'clock.
Henrietta, Aug. 2, 3 o'clock.
Carricksburg, August 1, 3 o'clock.
Lafayette, Aug. 2, 10 a.m.
Bennettstown, Aug. 2, 3 p.m.
Competitors invited to participate.

CHOICE SEED OATS.

I have for sale about 50 bushels of Red Winter Oats—first crop. They are acknowledged superior to any other by all who have seen them. I raised on 400 square yards nearly bushels, sown late in the spring. Had they been sown in the fall I have assurances from a very reliable gentleman in Henderson, (from whom I obtained the seed) that the yield would have been twice as large. They are just better than anything else of the kind. Address me at once.

The Result.

[Photograph.]

Congress has adjourned. Most everybody knows it, but for the fear some may not, we repeat that the Congressmen have gone home. The work of the extra session has been summed up as follows:

Eleven measures of importance have been passed: Of the four political bills, three have become laws. The Army bill, with its prohibition of the use of the army as a police to keep the peace at the polls. The bill repealing the odious jurors' test-oath; and the bill providing a new and non-partisan method of drawing juries. The Marshall's bill, which is intended to prevent the employment of Deputy Marshals to interfere in elections. It failed to become a law; but the failure deprives the administration of any money to pay them. It also deprives the United States Marshals and their regular Clerks of their salaries, but does not deprive them of their salaries, which are provided for in the Legislative and Executive Appropriation bill, which should be added to the total as the twelfth important measure passed upon.

Of the financial bills only one became a law; the bill making sub-inflated silver coins exchangeable for greenbacks in amounts of twenty dollars or less, and the Warner bill, to make trade dollars exchangeable for standard dollars, dollar for dollar, passed the House, but both were hanging up in the Senate Committee on Finance until next December.

The Sanitary Bill is known as the Yellow Fever Bill, and establishes a National Board of Health, with general supervision of the sanitary condition of the country. The Internal Improvement Bill is the bill establishing a Commission to make a survey of the Mississippi river and report upon the best method of protecting the banks from overflowing, and improving the navigation of the river. The Tariff Bill is the bill already mentioned, placing duties on and reducing duties on the free list; and the Salary Bill is known as the Letter Carriers' Bill, and provides for a small increase in the salaries of the Letter Carriers all over the country.

England's Millionaires.

London, writes a correspondent of the New York Times, still manages to sell large quantities of works of art, and the merchants and manufacturers of the North are still among the chief patrons of the galleries and auction rooms. The finest galleries of the most costly collection of modern days have been made by the cotton kings of Manchester, the merchant princes of Liverpool and the wildland manufacturers. Another circumstance worth remembering is that most of these rich art collectors have been the architects of their own fortunes. Indeed, the majority of the wealthy men of business in England have either made their own fortunes or sprung from some poor, clever, industrious man, who, like Richard Crawshaw, has laid the foundation of the home. Here are a few examples: Ripley, the member of Parliament for Bradford, who owns half the town is self-made. His father and mother used to attend the market. The father of Bass, the great brewer was in a very small way of business, and his mother sold yeast in a little shop. The late Admiral's father kept a small news agent's store in London. Mr. Walter, member of Parliament, and chief proprietor of the Times, dates back, I believe, to his father's humble printing office in the city. Mr. Johnston, who, left behind him the Standard, worth $150,000,000 a year, besides real estate, was an officer in the old bankruptcy court. The late Herbert Ingram, member of Parliament, kept a little drug store at Nottingham. Mr. Lawson, chief proprietor of the Telegraph, from which he draws for half his share quite $150,000,000 a year, was the commercial representative of an ink house. He is now one of the rich commoners of England. Reports have it that his income is over $600,000 a year. This, of course, does not begin to approach the incomes of the wealthy men of England who have inherited as well as made fortunes. Robert Crawshaw had at least $35,000,000 left by his father. How much he has made or lost I don't know. He gave his daughters wedding gifts that would buy a German dukedom. But, talking of newspapers men, Labouchere, in spite of the newspapers and theatres, pays income tax on $160,000 a year. He was robbed some time since by forgers on his bank of $75,000, extending over some months, without being aware of it. The bank called his attention to some irregularity, which brought the fraud to light.

Queen of the Oven.

A biscuit made with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is certainly the queen of the oven. So light, white and enjoyable! After breakfasting on biscuits made with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, what man would contemplate suicide, or grumble because his wife asked him for money?

What We Trust Him for.

It is one of the peculiarities of the child in infancy that one of his earliest developments is a genius for finance. At Lafayette, recently, a gentleman who teaches a class in Sunday school, by way of illustrating a certain point, took from his pocket a new dollar, and asked, "What is this?" A little fellow responded: "Ninety-two cents." "This was not exactly apropos, so the teacher went on; What is the motto on it?" "In God we trust," responded another numismatic. "What do we trust him for?" continued the teacher. "For the other 8 cents," replied the first little financier, and that ended the dialogue.

We do Not Wonder.

We do not wonder that housewives who have been accustomed to use Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts should turn disgust from the trash often sold under the name of Flavoring Extracts, which stuff smells and tastes like turpentine. Dr. Price's Flavoring Extracts have the tastes and color of the fresh fruits.

Witnesses in Felony Cases Entitled to Pay.

The decision of the Court of Appeals, (Judge Hines delivering the opinion), published Saturday, in a case taken up from Jefferson Circuit Court, wherein Judge Jackson had decided that the Revised Statutes had repealed the act of 1796 allowing commonwealth's witnesses in felony cases pay for attendance, reverses that portion of the decision of Jackson, declared that the old statute is not repealed, and that said witnesses are entitled to pay for attendance upon sessions of court. This will be good news to all witnesses whose compensation was suspended pending proceedings in the appellate court, as well as a $300,000 raid on the Treasury.—[Breckinridge News.]

Positive Women.

With strong convictions for the true and the right in all matters pertaining to their family affairs, women are the backbone of the nation. Women of independent wills and love for the best and most sensible interests of their families, women, knowing they have sound judgment and capacity for intellectual force, never accept the opinion of others. They are the backbone of the nation. They are the backbone of the nation. They are the backbone of the nation.

Habitual Constipation.

Is generally difficult to cure if you lead a sedentary life. You have resorted to pills, but they are too strong and sickening to take all the time. The best informed people now use a Saline purgative which is mild, cooling and pleasant, and is preferable to all and one that will purify and effectually free from pain. That remedy is Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills. It is a natural, healthy, and reliable remedy for all cases of chronic constipation, and is a perfect cure for all cases of chronic constipation, and is a perfect cure for all cases of chronic constipation.

Do You Shake?

Throw aside your quinine. It cures your head too much, and cannot be retained for a definite stomach. Discontinue your quinine. Instead of building up, but send for Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills. It is a natural, healthy, and reliable remedy for all cases of chronic constipation, and is a perfect cure for all cases of chronic constipation, and is a perfect cure for all cases of chronic constipation.

Chronic cases are cured at once.

LOST!

It is an Established Fact

That Quinine or Cinchonilla will stop

Chills, and for this purpose there is no better remedy. But it is also an established fact that they do not remove the cause that produces the Chills. For if they did, the Chills would not return on the 2d, 4th, 6th, or 8th day. There is no money lost in attempting to permanently cure Chills with Quinine or Cinchonilla, when they do not remove the cause from the system that produces them.

For until the cause is removed, the Chills will return. The

Ferrine

is warranted to remove every cause from the system that produces the Chills, and if it fails to do this you will sustain no loss, for every druggist is authorized to guarantee a permanent cure in every case, no matter how long standing, and will refund the money if the Chills return after you are through taking it. Testify to no cure, no pay. Try it and be convinced. It contains no poison, and is perfectly harmless. Sold by HAY & BUCK,

N.Y., and a permanent cure guaranteed in every case.
